Hey Edward,

Before I can alert the entire senior class the results of the election I need to have a member of the JBoard (ie. you) to check the totals. Below are the official numbers of the election. All you need to do is go to Bowdoin.edu/vote/admin and click on votes and make sure that the numbers match up. After that just email me that you confirm the results and I can email your class the official results (as well as the orient, etc.)

Thanks for all your help and please get back to me as soon as possible,
Anirudh
