

BOWDOIN COLLEGE EXPANSION SOUTH OF COLLEGE STREET

For more than four decades, Bowdoin has been purchasing property south of College Street to expand its campus. The College now owns all but two properties along Coffin Street, which the College could use in the future to create a corridor between the main campus and the athletic complex. Bowdoin has purchased 17 properties between the two in the past decade.

KEY

Bowdoin College property

Privately owned property

1998

Year purchased

--

Residential zone

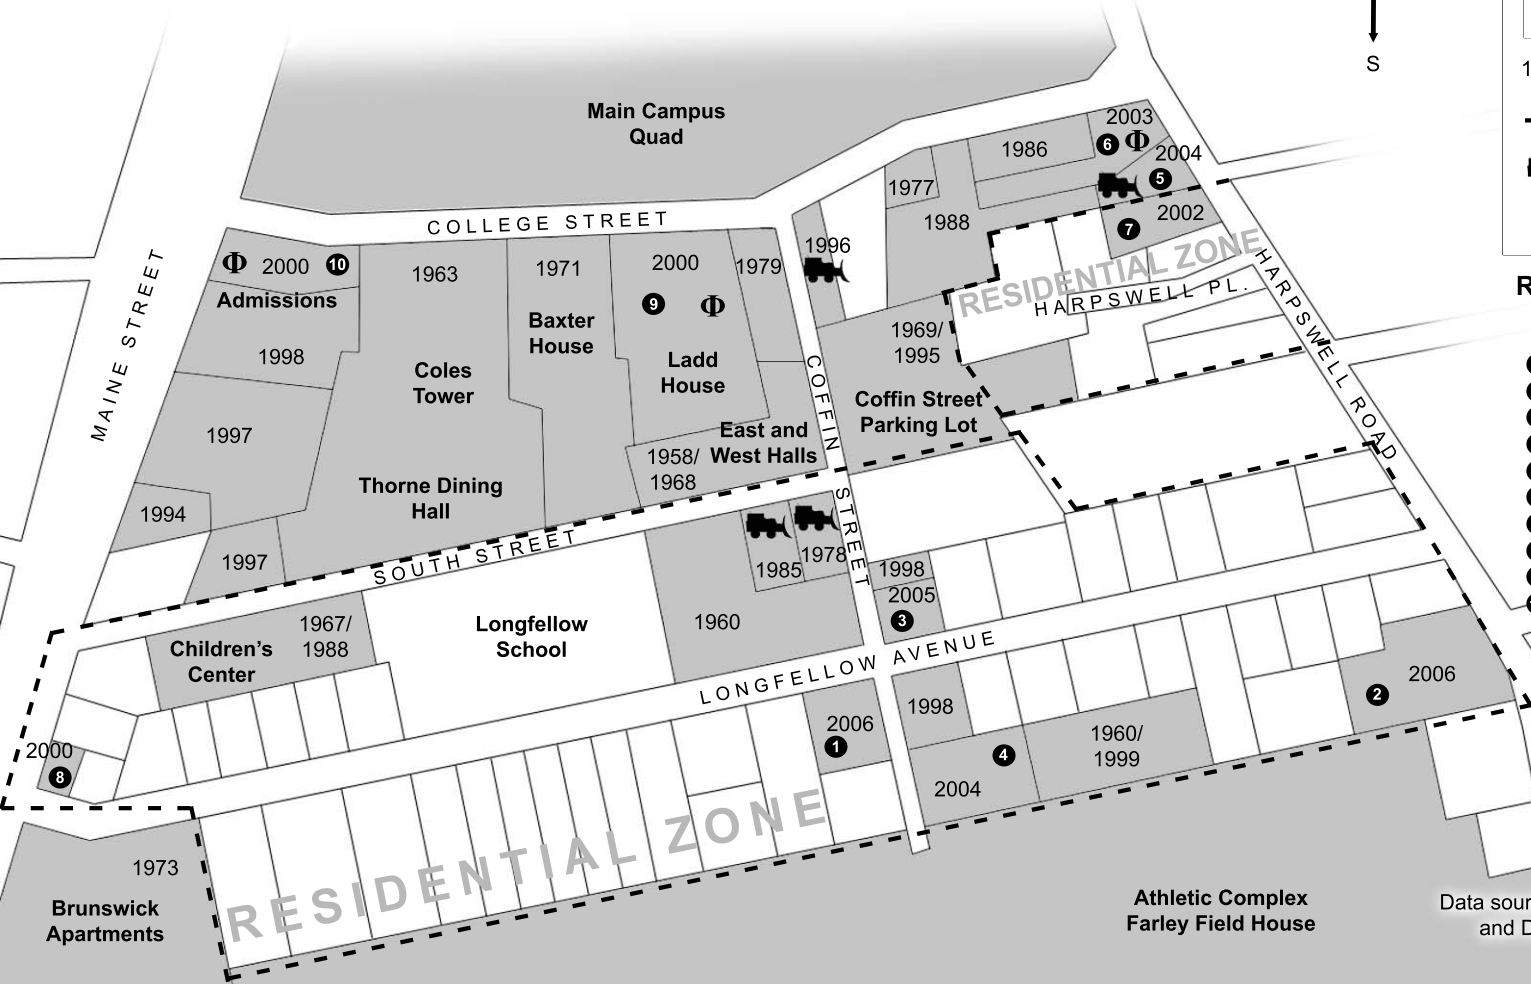

Building recently demolished

Φ

Former fraternity

Recent Purchases

	Address	Purchase Year	Purchase Price
1	30 Longfellow St.	2006	Unknown
2	66 Harpswell Rd.	2006	Unknown
3	31 Longfellow Rd.	2005	$285,000
4	25 Coffin St.	2004	$410,000
5	40 Harpswell Rd.	2004	$270,000
6	38 Harpswell Rd.	2003	$310,000
7	42 Harpswell Rd.	2002	$179,000
8	271 Maine St.	2000	$150,000
9	14 College St.	2000	$579,000
10	2 College St.	2000	$350,000

Data sources: Town of Brunswick Assessing Office and Department of Planning and Development
Compiled by James Baumberger